Supporting Evidence	Ameriabank CJSC Account Statement N 0 for ARWOOD LLC, prepared 04 September 2026 at 13:02, reporting period 04 September 2025 - 04 September 2026 (366 days). Closing balance / available balance: AMD 1,926,714.21.
Reserve Ratio, if any	Not determinable from the bank statement alone; covered token amount and formally designated reserve amount must be separately approved and evidenced by ARWOOD LLC.

Evidence note: The Ameriabank statement evidences the stated ARWOOD LLC bank account and its reported balance only. It does not, by itself, designate that balance as reserve assets for the token or prove a USD 1,000,000 reserve.

ARWOOD LLC confirms only the reserve amount and assets actually entered above and supported by current evidence. No blank field in this document shall be interpreted as a representation or guarantee.

3. Nature of Support

The designated assets, if any, are intended to support the project in the manner expressly stated in this agreement. Unless the company separately accepts a legally binding redemption obligation, this agreement does not by itself give token holders a right to redeem tokens for cash, USDT, or any other asset.

4. Evidence and Verification

ARWOOD LLC agrees that any public statement concerning reserve backing should correspond to verifiable evidence. Where appropriate, supporting evidence may include a current bank confirmation, custodian statement, blockchain wallet proof, accountant confirmation, or independent attestation.

5. No Official Tether Affiliation

The parties acknowledge that the token identified by the contract address above is an independent ERC-20 project. This agreement does not state or imply that the token is issued, sponsored, guaranteed, redeemable, or otherwise endorsed by Tether Holdings Limited or the official Tether USDT ecosystem.

6. Reserve Control and Withdrawals
